

Privacy Policy

No information submitted to any of USA CRITS verticals (including USACRITS.tv, Swagger.us and USACRITS.com) via membership, feedback forms, or mailing list will be given out, sold, or distributed to any outside organization. Your contact information is used to contact you and share with you information regarding our events and partners.

We may use third-party advertising companies to serve ads when you visit our websites. These third-party advertising companies may use advertising technologies such as cookies, web beacons and other similar advertising technologies.

We use cookies to personalize content and ads, to provide social media features and to analyze our traffic. We also share information about your use of our site with partners.

These companies may use aggregated information (not including your name, address, email address or telephone number) about your visits to this and other websites in order to provide advertisements about goods and services of interest to you. If you would like more information about this practice and to know your choices about not having this information used by these companies, please see: https://www.networkadvertising.org/managing/opt_out.asp.

Third Party Links: We offer partner links on our site. We are in no way responsible for the content of these websites. Please be sure to read their Privacy Policies and terms of use for information regarding those particular sites.

Use of Information/To Communicate With You

Swagger and USA CRITS may use your information to communicate with you; such as to provide you with newsletters, promotional information and information about our events. Users may opt-out of receiving future mailings by contacting info@usacrits.com or by unsubscribing to sent emails.

Children

We will not knowingly collect any information from any children under the age of 13. If we discover that we have collected any personally-identifying information from a child under the age of 13, we will promptly remove that information from our database.
